INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Sirs:

Applicant's representative initiated a telephonic interview and was granted same on the date specified above. Examiner Negrón represented the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) and Rudolph J. Buchel, Jr. represented the Applicant for the application identified above. Also present was the Examiner's Primary Examiner. The primary issue, and the subject of the interview was the availability of U.S. Patent Publication No.2002/0104098 (the '098 publication) to Zustak et al. as applied to claims 1 and 14 – 18 in the above-identified U. S. patent application and as applied over proposed amendments to the claims.

Applicant's representative suggested amendments to the base claims that include a video sensor, a memory for retaining video data, a motion detector for detecting motion and in response generating a motion indication, and a video processor for receiving motion indications from the motion detector and retaining video in the memory based on the presence of a motion indication. Applicant's representative further suggested limiting the field of use of the invention to the healthcare industry as the proposed amendments to the claimed invention incorporates a video processor which retains only video frames after receiving a motion indication from the motion detector. The use of that processor in combination with the other features were thought to be of particular importance to surveillance applications in the healthcare industry.

Examiner Negrón agreed that the proposed amendments would overcome the rejections based on the '098 publication, but clearly stated that an update search was necessary before a final decision on patentability could be made. Examiner Negrón disagreed that limiting the field of use would place the application in better condition for allowance.

Although agreement was reached on certain issues that appeared to overcome the cited prior art, no agreement was reached on other issues. Presently, the application stands rejected.

Applicant's representative appreciates the Examiner's immediate granting the telephonic interview. In addition, Applicant's representative wishes to express sincere appreciation for the Examiner's preparedness, her candor and her extraordinary attention to detail in the examination of this case.
